

Lonergan University College

announces its Interdisciplinary Seminar for 1995-96

The Works of M. K. Gandhi

Under the direction of Distinguished Scholar Sheila McDonough, Professor of Religious Studies, Concordia University, LUCC 399 (The Works of Gandhi) will enable students to imaginatively enter into Gandhi's experiences, and to understand his life as a series of religious responses to concrete events. Over the course of the year students will be encouraged to critically evaluate the Mahatma's often controversial responses to the problems life threw at him.

Other Lonergan Interdisciplinary Courses during 1995-96 are:

LUCC 200/3

The Creative Experience of Understanding

LUCC 298/4

Values and the Interface of Cultures

LUCC 410/2

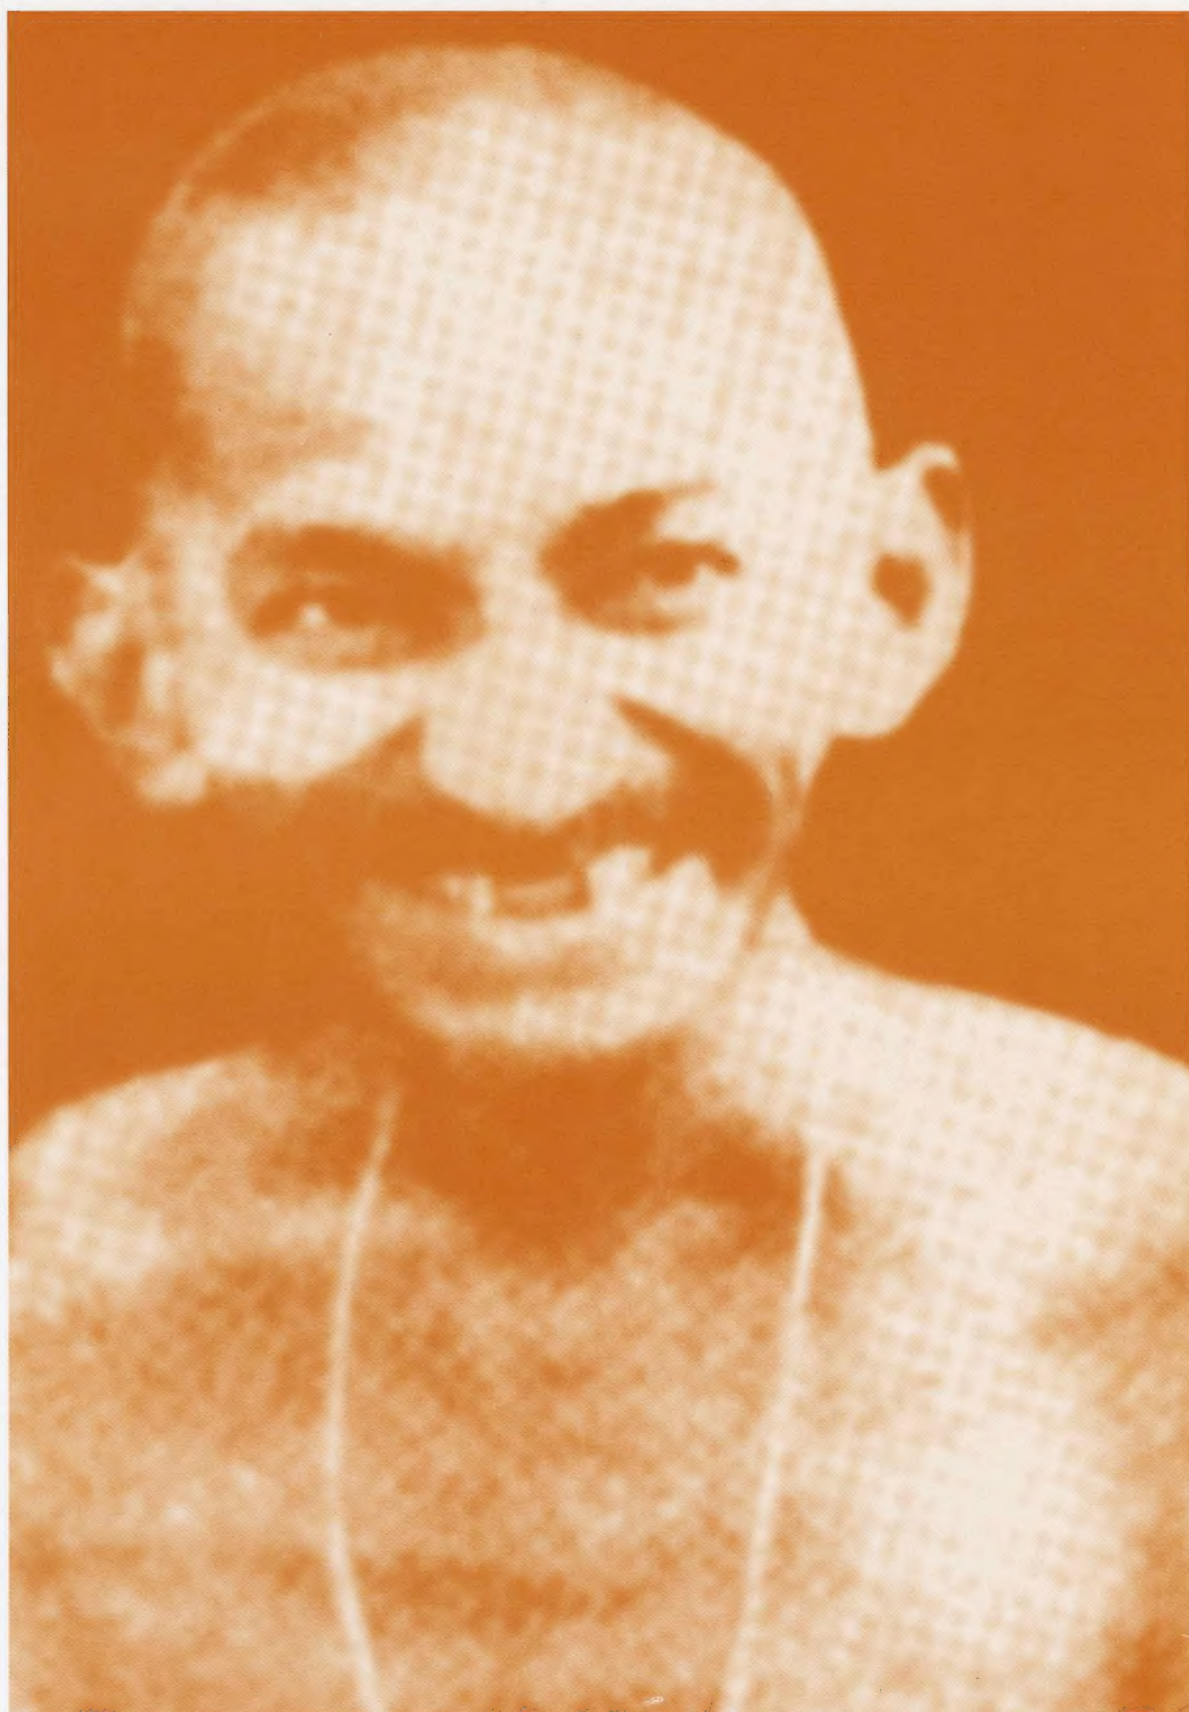

Introduction to the Works of Bernard Lonergan

LUCC 440/4

The Interdisciplinary Experience

All Lonergan Seminars are open to all students.

For further information, call Lonergan University College (848-2280) or, better, drop in and see the College at 7302 Sherbrooke St. W., at the corner of West Broadway. You can be sure of a warm welcome.

from The Collected Works of Mahatma Gandhi

"If we are to make progress, we must not repeat history, but make new history."

"I have pitched my tent in the abode of the inscrutable."

"The perception and the performance of right changes things and relations; it is essentially revolutionary, and does not consist wholly with anything which was."

- M.K. Gandhi
